Jett's Creek.

George McIntosh was at Athol Saturday on business. Henry McIntosh had a barn raising Saturday and twenty-two hands participated. Misses Manda and Mary McIntosh attended church at Jett's Creek Sunday. Anderson Johnson visited Miss Celie Jett Sunday. Bryant Brothers have moved their saw mill from this place to Mat Bowman's, near Athol. Thomas Terry has gone to Berea to attend school. James Johnson and wife, Julius McIntosh, Dora Short and Pruda Allen attended church at Canoe last Sunday. The second Sunday in October there will be a funeral meeting on Bryant's creek, at the grave yard, near Hugh Bryants. Oscar McIntosh, who has been confined to his room for the past week with throat trouble, is improving fast. People are about done foddering in this vicinity. There will be a Baptizing at the mouth of Jett's Creek the first Saturday in October. Everybody invited. Mrs. Ance McIntosh visited her parents Sunday.

Mrs. James A. Davis has been visiting relatives for the past week at Flat Woods. Miss Maude Phipps, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. John Carter, at Morehead, for the past few months returned home a few days ago. B. Gullett sold to Harlan Nickell, a horse last week for $110. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey are visiting relatives at Morehead this week. Mrs. Marion Bailey visited relatives and friends at Hazel Green last week. W. T. Walters, of Cannel City, was in this vicinity last week on business. Dean and Frank Patrick, of Magoffin county, were here last week on business. The people of this neighborhood are very busy saving fodder and making up molasses.

Hazel Green, Wolfe Co.

Robert McLin went to Winchester Monday on business. Miss Lou Evans left Monday for Honaker, Va. Green Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, is here visiting friends and relatives. Frank Ford, of Lexington, is at the Swango Springs drinking the famous water this week. A. F. Lloyd, with another gentleman, from Lexington, were in town last week doing some tin work for Spencer Cooper and Willie Mize, and were guests of the Day House. Miss Mary Elam visited her uncle, John Barker on Lacy creek last week. Jordan Combs, of Salyersville last week. Wm. Perry county, passed through here Sunday. Last Saturday evening the town boys played base ball against the H. G. A. team, but the game was in favor of the school boys.

Insko, Morgan County.

David and Lucinda Lindon, who have been very low with the fever for the past few weeks are improving slowly. J. R. Sizemore visited relatives and friends at Salyersville last week. Wm. Conley made a business trip to Lexington a few days ago. F. A. Bailey bought a young mule from Marion Lacy a few days ago, for which he paid about $70.

A Word to the Juniors.

If I mistake not, we have at the present in Breathitt county, upward of fourteen hundred members of the Junior Order. It will soon be four years since the first council of this order was instituted in this county, at Elkatawa, with myself counselor, Bro. John Oaks financial secretary and Bro. Geo.
Little vice counselor. Those were trying days for the order as most people thought it only a farce and a failure. But we labored and we were crowned with success and victory. The first American flag that ever waved over a public school building in Breathitt county was hoisted over the school building of that little village, and the first Bible ever presented to a school of this county was given to that school by Charity Council 167 the first year it was instituted.

From that time on the Juniors have been sowing the good seed, until to-day we know of more than one school which has Old Glory floating over its building and the Holy Bible read and explained by its teacher.

The brother who does not labor for these achievements, for these improvements has fallen short of the duties of a Junior. The place where the Junior order can do the most good for the country is in its public schools, and to be frank and plain about this matter, the majority of the Juniors of this county are too neglectful of this important duty, and they need to interview themselves and see where they stand. The Junior who lives in a school district and has never visited that school, knows that he is unworthy of possessing the ties that make this good brotherhood, and the sooner we get rid of him the better it will be for the order and for our public schools.

I wish to speak to every Junior in Breathitt county, and it is about a cause that I am quite sure is worthy of our earnest consideration. Some several months ago we lost one of our most worthy brothers. I am sure that almost every man in our county was personally acquainted with him and that every little child with whom he had formed acquaintances loved and cherished him. Uncle Reuben Smith died some six months ago and was buried at the family burial ground at the mouth of Lost Creek by his Brother Juniors. He had been a member of this order but a few months, but loved and worshiped its principles, as he did every worthy and religious cause.
Now, the brothers of Mt. Zion Council, Lost Creek, have asked us to assist them in placing a monument over the remains of Bro. Smith. We ask each brother in Breathitt county to consider the matter, and we ask each Council to take up this at once, and hope each brother will contribute as much as he thinks he is able.

The brothers of Rhoda May Council who have contributed are G. P. Combs $1, Fletcher Deaton 50c, Thomas Hudson $1, Kelly Kash 50c, South Strong 50c, Eld.
J. D. Hunter $1, Joseph Arnett $2, and Henry S. Barnett $1, and we think all other brothers will contribute accordingly. Let us hear from you soon.

Fraternally yours,

SOUTH STRONG.

Two Killed.

A special from Beattyville to the Louisville Herald September 26, says:

Simpson Gross and Bert Flinchum were shot and instantly killed late last night by John Hoffman on Miller's creek, near the Estill and Lee county lines. The trouble arose over Gross and Flinchum accusing Hoffman's son of theft. Hoffman demanded his son's release, which was refused, and he immediately procured a shotgun and fired on them, killing both men with the same shot.
Hoffman has not been arrested.

Col. W. B. Smith, of Richmond, candidate for Democratic Elector for the State-at-Large, spoke here Monday on the issues of the Cam-

There was church at the Hampton school house last Sunday and a large crowd attended. The service was conducted by W. H.
Taylor, of Malaga. In the afternoon a large crowd of boys and girls took a walk and in the crowd we noticed Lenis Sueney, Robert Rose, Emma Turner, Marton Lawson, Malvey Turner, Courtney Lowson, Sherilda Lawson, Harvey, Willis Chapman, Lucy, Luenev and Mollie Chapman. Mr. and Mrs. Porter Lawson gave a bean hulling last Saturday night and in the crowd were Ben Hurst, Martin and Courtney Lawson and Richard Hurst, of Malaga, and many girls from Simpson. Miss Martha Montgomery visited Emma and Lizette Harris Sunday.
Sherman Case, who was some time ago, is able to ride around. Emma and Lizzie Harris visited the home of Luther Harley and (G. H. Case), at Caney last week and all the girls and boys came home with them. Mrs. Bailey spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harris and enjoyed the trip fine. H. PONTO.

News.

Martin Fugate, of Ohio, has been visiting his children in this vicinity. Mr. Fugate was a rebel soldier, and lived in Breathitt county, but left this State about 25 years ago, so it had been about 25 years since he had seen his children.
His wife has fork up ten years ago. He has a family in Ohio and a correspondent was moved with him incontrollable emotion at a meeting in the grave yard below the mouth of Buckhorn by seeing one of the sons of Mr. Fugate take him by the hand and bid him good bye, perhaps to never see him no more in this world. The thing stood out in features so plain and showed the rivers and mountains that lie between them, and knowing the anxiety of father for son and son for father, it was almost heartrendering for the sympathetic man. James Combs is operating a cane mill in this vicinity.
The Mountain Association convened with Grapevine church last Friday and continued three days.
One new church, the Combs Bend church, was received into it. Bro.
Ira Combs was one of the visiting brethren. Good order prevailed. There is some opposition against the Mountain Association, but we find in the Bible that Absalom tried to take the crown of his father, David, not because he had any personal enmity towards his father, but for the crown's sake. So the kingdom of David suffered violence, and we see the kingdom of heaven suffered the same, but the Lord will deliver.

Crockettsville.

S. P. Ashford is the guest of L. C. Bowling and family. Mrs.
Mary E. Deaton went to Booneville Tuesday last on business.
Harrison McDaniel had his thigh broken by a tree falling on him Saturday. William Hoskins and family, of Jackson, are visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dora Callahan.
William Turner and wife are visiting relatives in Owsley county.
John Baker, of Booneville, was here Monday. John Callahan and Miss Bessie Hoskins, of Jackson, attended church at Canoe Sunday. Robert Talent took dinner with Willie Bowling Saturday. Orlean Turner and son, Newton, visited the family of her brother, John Belcher, at Shoulder Blade, a few days the past week. Mrs. Mary E. Deaton went to the county seat Monday on business. Elihue Reynolds visited home folks at Canoe Sunday. BOSS KUM.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

We desire to correct a mistake in regard to the funeral of uncle George Belcher. The funeral will be conducted by Joseph Walters, Clint Taylor and probly others at the memorial meeting at Crockettsville burying ground, October the third Saturday and Sunday.
The funeral of aunt Polly Little and Sally Belcher will be announced at the Little burying on Canoe creek the fourth Saturday in October 1908. Everybody welcome and everybody invited. The Lane's creek Council No. 68, Jr.
O. U. A. M., will decorate the graves of their many friends interred in the Crockettville burying ground on Sunday at 10 o'clock at the memorial meeting published one year ago by Joseph Walters to be held October, 3rd, Saturday and Sunday, and by marching in concert around the graves, other Councils and members of other Councils are invited to participate, all members are requested to be prepared with regalia for the occasion. Your correspondent visited the fair at Buckhorn last Saturday week.

Every thing was so wisely and discreetly handled, and conducted, that all by-standers and spectators became intensely interested. It is hoped that another year will enlarge the territory to be represented, and many others will make preparations to exhibit their products, when the fair shall have enlarged her borders and complete an organization. A very serious accident occurred the twenty-sixth inst. Harrison McDaniel was in the woods preparing some rail-timber, unfortunately lodged a tree, while working to get the tree down slipped and fell, the tree falling across his right thigh, crushing the bone above the knee joint. He lay under the log about three fourths of an hour before help sufficient to relieve him reached him. Doctor Absher was am-mediately summoned to dress and set the broken bone, and says he thinks that he will recover without an amputation. BOSS UNCLE.

Lee City, Wolfe County.

Dr. Wise went to Campton Tuesday. We had a fine rain here Monday. Henry Clair was badly hurt Monday while unloading freight. Alex Duff's mill was wrecked by a visit, and about 200 worth of rums and staves, and some ties for James P.
Simers. Damage in all was about six hundred dollars. The Juniors of Lee City Council No. 84, will have a march the second Sunday in October. The Juniors will form in line at 9 a. m. and march to the school house in Gilmore creek where an American flag will be hoisted over the school house and a Holy Bible presented to the school. The flag will be made by Mrs. J. H. Hurst and Mrs. A.
H. Hurst, of Campton, Lenix Swain, of Lee City, Green and Eld.
J. D. Deaton. Dr. Wise is going to his property in the next week. RED.

We think the people of this district have had enough of carpet bag rule and they are going to check Cox's man's baggage back home in November.

J. I. Hall went to Jellico, Tenn., last week and arrested Shade Duff, indicted for forgery here, and brought him back, but he gave bond on his arrival.

Cox's judge, after his defeat in November, will have plenty of time to get into a race in his own district next year if he wants to be judge anywhere.

Rev. J. T. Leonard, formerly of Frankfort, but now of Columbia, Mo., is visiting his son, Prof. C. A. Leonard, principal of Lees Collegiate Institute.

It is no longer a question who will be Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney next year, but how big will be the majority for White and Stamper in November.

Mrs. Joe A. Stephens, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John D. Young. Mrs. Stephens attended the funeral of Henry Godsey at Hazel Green last week.

The severe drouth that has prevailed here for the past two months was broken Monday by a moderate rain and the temperature has been near the frost line since.

You are invited to call and inspect my new line of Fall and Winter Hats, which I have just received from the city. I have marked down the prices to suit the times.

MOLLIE FIELDS.

Judge J. B. White, of Irvine, was here the first of the week looking after his candidacy for Circuit Judge. He reports his prospects for election exceedingly flattering. It appears that the people have had enough of Cox's judge, and White is going to be elected by a handsome majority.

Combs Case Reversed.
The case vs. John and Henry Combs, who were sentenced here more than a year ago for the murder of Thomas Combs, has been reversed by the Court of Appeals.

Marriage Licenses.
The following marriage licenses have been issued since our last report:

Josiah Wadkins, of Herald, and Miss Lydia Caudill, of Stevenson, James Johnson and Miss Sallie Hays, both of Frozen Creek.

T. M. Lewis and Miss Julia Moseley, both of Jackson.

Tom Cockrill Killed.

Thos. C. Cockrill was killed Saturday night by getting caught under the wheels of a cut of cars in a railroad yard in Louisville. Mr. Cockrill was on his way home from North Dakota, where he had been visiting his brother, Mack, and arrived in Louisville Saturday afternoon and while waiting for his train, went to visit a friend named Rawlings. He and a son of Rawlings went out to hunt up an acquaintance who was a railroad conductor and after finding him agreed to wait till the conductor was off duty so he could return with them to the Rawlings home. They were walking through the yards when they saw a freight train coming towards them. They got off that track and stepped on another track, when, not realizing a cut of cars coming on that track, caught them. Cockrill had both legs broken and was badly crushed over the body. Rawlings had one leg broken and was badly bruised. They were taken to a hospital where Cockrill's wounds were pronounced fatal, and he died shortly before midnight. His remains were brought here and buried in the family grave yard near the residence of his brother, Tuesday. Mack and brother, James. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. M. Summers.

Rev. Edge Pounded.

The members and friends of the Baptist church gave the pastor and his family a severe "pounding" last Friday night, the effects of which will be felt for some time to come. This was the pastor's birthday and his family appreciate very much the kindness and generosity of the people.

Moore a Boss Grader.

The grading that has been done by N. J. Moore on Jefferson and Highland Avenues is to be commended. It has improved the hill wonderfully and we hope that the good work will go on. There is much more that can be done towards improving Marcum Heights and the resident people earnestly desire it. Every winter the hill has been almost impassable for teams or walking and we hope the trustees will not stop the good work. Another street that is in bad condition and needs working immediately is Lincoln avenue. This street has long been so that a team could not go up the hill and good work can be done on that road. "A half loaf is better than none," and we appreciate what has already been done.

HOW YOU WILL

The result is always the same. Cash buys goods cheaper than credit. A cash business enables a merchant to sell better goods for less money than credit business. Please note carefully the following reasons why it pays to buy cash:

First—A few cents saved on several purchases amounts up a great deal in the aggregate.

Second—We buy our goods for cash and get discounts and inducements which we pass on to our customers.

Third—Selling for cash, we give our customers the difference between credit and cash prices.

Fourth—Selling for cash, we do not lose $2,000 or $3,000 annually on bad debts, which credit houses have to make their good customers pay or go out of business.

Fifth—We want to establish a big trade, and we know that close prices and good, honest goods will do it.

Sixth—We will positively not be undersold by any one.

Seventh—If you would get in the habit of buying for cash you will find the habit will save you money.

Eighth—We can and will make closer prices than people who pay for bookkeepers, collections, etc.

Ninth—If not satisfied, we will refund money for goods and services.
